

Mees Wendels

Technical Game & Level Designer

Profile

I am a Graduate Designer from Breda University of Applied Sciences. Seeking to join a company which helps me further develop as a Game/Level Designer whilst creating high quality experiences and having a lot of fun doing it!

As an ambitious and dedicated team member, I love to create the highest quality experiences for the player through multi-disciplinary collaboration. Using my passion for game development and my flexibility I can quickly adapt to become an always contributing factor in the project within any role.
